
Share = 100 × wealth contribution (pp) / observed GDP growth (%). Ratios can exceed 100% when other contributions offset wealth.
Negative ratio during contraction means wealth cushions the decline. Line breaks around contractions; zero-growth ratios are undefined.